Farmingville, NY – On Friday, October 16, Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) attended the 62nd Anniversary Dinner-Dance for American Veterans AMVETS Hammond-Biggs Post 111 located in Patchogue. During the event, which was held at the Bellport Country Club, the post honored Michael Amodio, their 2nd term Commander (left) and Supervisor Romaine presented him with a proclamation.

Commander Michael Amodio is a Patchogue resident who served in the United States Army. He donates much of his time at local hospitals where he brings trained therapy dogs to visit patients to uplift their spirits. He is a member of Bugles Across America who plays Taps during special events at Calverton National Cemetery. Commander Amodio is editor of the Annual American Veterans Newspaper.
